January 17, 2011

To: The Membership of the Palm Beach Senior Softball Association

The Palm Beach Senior Softball Association would like your input in a project we are calling, “BEFORE YOU WERE A PBSSA SUPERSTAR”. Our membership encompasses players with a multitude of talents and life experiences. We would like to prepare a bio-file in which players can share their backgrounds and those experiences.

Among the professions found in our early research includes a college professor, a postmaster, a school principal, a member of the CIA, a railroad supervisor and dispatcher, police captains, firemen, salesmen, businessmen, stock brokers. The list goes on and on.

Tell us about where you were born and raised, your schooling, family, work, hobbies, sports participation as a player and a fan and any other interests or facts you would like to share.

We have players would have met long lost friends through our league. You may find someone who shares your interests and hobbies or just be amazed at the variety of expertise there is in our league.

Bert Goodstadt is going to prepare a “PowerPoint” presentation at our annual luncheon and would like to include pictures of players as teenagers or younger participating in sporting activities.

The BIO-FILE form is included with this letter. We’re hoping you will join us in what we believe to be an interesting project.

Sincerely,

The Directors of PBSSA
